LGBT Speakers Bureau Facilitator Training

November 14 | 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

LGBT Resource Center, Conference Room

If you have received panelist training, then coming soon is the Speakers Bureau Facilitator Training! Becoming a facilitator is a perfect way to further your skill in public speaking, learn how to initiate critical conversations, and bring empowerment to those that are finding/using their voices! This is a LOW TIME COMMITMENT, so stop on by! In order to receive Facilitator training you must have done Panelist Training prior to the program. These are crucial skills to be an effective facilitator for whatever event, so don't miss out! Can't wait to see you all there! Please contact Thomas if you have any questions at lgbtspeakers@ucsd.edu.

Rising From the Ashes: Creating Mental Health

November 15 | 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

LGBT Resource Center, Conference Room

Mental Health issues have been and continue to be portrayed in a negative light where treatments typically pathologize those diagnosed. Rising from the Ashes seeks to artistically explore the complexities of what makes it difficult to talk about mental health issues. We will come together to challenge those notions and create a

Introducing: Sarah Tanori

Preuss School Intern

Hello all! My name is Sarah Elisa Tanori and I am one of the two current Preuss School interns. My job position consists of working the front desk, giving tours and greeting the guests entering the space. I am a generally happy and awkward person. I love singing and playing guitar, writing poetry, laughing, reading and I think concerts and musicals are the greatest things ever. I am honestly so happy to be working here, I feel so attached to the space because everyone and everything feels like family, I love you all!

Queer Book of the Week from UCSD Library

No Straight Lines: Four Decades of Queer Comics

The LGBT RC works closely with the library and this week we are featuring the book, No Straight Lines: Four Decades of Queer Comics.

Queer cartooning encompasses some of the best and most interesting comics of the last four decades, with creators tackling complex issues of identity and a changing society with intelligence, humor, and imagination. This book celebrates this vibrant artistic underground by gathering together a collection of excellent stories that can be enjoyed by all.

Until recently, queer cartooning existed in a parallel universe to the rest of comics, appearing only in gay newspapers and gay bookstores and not in comic book stores, mainstream bookstores or newspapers. The insular nature of the world of queer cartooning, however, created a fascinating artistic scene. LGBT comics have been an uncensored, internal conversation within the queer community, and thus provide a unique window into the hopes, fears, and fantasies of queer people for the last four decades.

Gender Buffet: Media Matters II: Parenting, Gender Roles, and Orientation

November 9 | 12:00 p.m - 1:30 p.m.

Women's Center

Did your favorite show do something problematic? Like why did they have to use that stereotype and not challenge it? And the premise of the show? Why?? Why??

This program will focus on comedies centered around families as well as new shows with "Mr. Mom" characters. Time permitting, we'll talk about these shows in light of recent reports of women being primary breadwinners and the continued use of the "who wears the pants" metaphor. Two shows we'll be reviewing (at the very least) are Modern Family and the New Normal. Snacks and caffeine will be provided. And Butternut Squash Soup. Noms.

Questions? Contact the Women's Center @ 858-822-0074, e-mail us at women@ucsd.edu, or visit women.ucsd.edu.

Drop off at the Student Health Services Room 101/101A or email essays/poetry to dpinosab@ucsd.edu. For more information and/or details about the essay prompts please email dpinosab@ucsd.edu.

Announcing the Launch of DeQH

DeQH offers free, confidential, culturally sensitive peer support, information and resources by telephone for LGBTQ South Asian individuals, families and friends around the globe. The intent is to provide a safe and supportive ear for callers to share their concerns, questions, struggles or hopes through conversations with trained LGBTQ South Asian Peer Support Volunteers.

Callers can reach the helpline at (908)FOR-DEQH (908-367-3374) 8pm-10pm on Thursdays and Sundays, Eastern Standard Time [5-7pm PST]. Days and times will expand over time. For general information, check out www.deqh.org.

When We Last Flew

Diversionsary Theater

When last we flew is a poetic and humorous story about a young man's life transformed by one of the most lauded plays of our time. The play is a funny, uplifting and unique piece addressing important and challenging topics - such as being African-American and LGBT in today's teen culture, how coming to terms with sexuality affects families, and theater's power to change lives - head-on in ways that feel relevant to anyone who has ever been a teenager or struggled with who they are.

If you would like tickets to this show, please respond to tguss@diversionary.org stating if you would like ONE or TWO tickets, your FULL name, EMAIL and organization. You will receive an email confirming your request.

All requests must be received no later than 24 hours before your chosen performance. Performances are:

- Thursday, November 8, 8pm
- Friday, November 9, 8pm
- Saturday, November 10, 8pm
- Sunday, November 11, 2pm
- Thursday, November 15, 8pm
- Friday, November 16, 8pm
- Sunday, November 18, 2pm

Please pick up your tickets at the box office NO LATER THAN 7:30 PM (1:30 on Sundays) or your tickets may be released.

Point Foundation Invites Applications for LGBTQ Student Scholarships

Point Scholarships are designed to help promising LGBTQ students achieve their full academic and leadership potential despite obstacles. Scholars must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership skills, community involvement, and financial need. Attention also will be paid to students who have lost the financial and social support of their families and/or communities as a result of revealing their sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Point Scholars must agree to maintain a high level of academic performance and to give back to the LGBTQ community through the completion of an individual community service project each year. Some Point Scholars also benefit from internship opportunities related to their fields of study.
