Queer Black Social

LGBT Resource Center Conference Room
February 13 | 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

In honor of Black History Month and Black Love Day, the queer black social will focus on wellness, emotional justice, and healing. This will be a closed space for self-identified black people to discuss queer issues. In this gathering, we will focus on black issues that particularly affect women. Please join us for food, good people, and great dialogue. If you have any questions, please contact Michelle Strange at mdstrange@ucsd.edu.

A Screening of "Paris is Burning"

LGBT Resource Center Conference Room
February 15 | 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

UCSD Transgender Intersex Alliance (TIA) will be presenting a screening of "Paris is Burning," a behind the scenes story of fashion obsessed New Yorkers who created "voguing" and drag balls, and turned these raucous celebrations into a powerful expression of personal pride. The world within a world is instantly familiar, filled with ambitions, desires and yearnings that reflect America itself. The film is an intimate portrait of one urban community, a world in which the allure of high fashion, status and wealth becomes an affirmation of love and acceptance. Snacks will be served.

Lazy Saturday Morning: Family Day

LGBT Resource Center

February 11 | 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

This year's theme for Family Day at the end of Week 5 is "Lazy Saturday Morning" where we'll hang out in our pjs (if you so desire), watch clips of treasured cartoons (Pokemon, anyone?), and eat an awesome 'possum breakfast (waffles!)! Everyone is invited to bring their chosen family members (including 4 legged ones) as well as some breakfast food. If you would like to come but lack reliable transportation, please email the magical interns at the address below. Hope to see you here!

If you have any questions, please contact the LGBT RC through rainbow@ucsd.edu

Transgender Intersex Alliance

LGBT Resource Center Heritage Room
Mondays | 3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

The mission of the Transgender Intersex Alliance is to provide a safe space for individuals undergoing SRS (sexual-reassignment or hormone therapies), as well as identities that may include, but are not limited to: genderqueer, genderfluid, genderless, gender non-conforming, agender, bigender, neutrois, androgyne, gender-bender, gender-blender, gender-f*cker, other gendered, two-spirit, gender-neutral, trans, intersex, or those who don't quite fit into a binary identity. It is also a space to promote solidarity and education between members and allies of the transgender community.

The first half of the meeting, from 3-4, is a closed space for the aforementioned list of identities, and from 4-5, allies are welcome to join in on the conversation and activities. Count on a safe, confidential space that provides insight and information, coupled with fun and off-campus outings. Hope to see you there! Join our mailing list! Shoot us an email at transgenderintersexalliance@gmail.com

Fluid Sexuality Group

LGBT Resource Center Heritage Room
Fridays | 3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

This group is an informal space for those who identify with bisexual, fluid, pansexual, queer and questioning experiences to discuss general and personal issues of attraction to multiple genders and the fluid nature of sexuality that many experience in our community. People of all sexual and gender identities are welcome to attend, listen, and participate. Come together and share your experiences or learn from the experiences of others about what fluid identities mean in people's lives.

visits during Week 3 was 440.

The primary reasons selected for visiting the LGBT RC are to study and to hang out/be in community.

INTRODUCING... Judith Inurriaga

Hi my name is Judith Inurriaga, a current high school senior at the Preuss School UCSD. I am very excited to go to college soon, I have already been accepted to three universities, Northern Arizona University, CSU Stanislaus, and my number one choice Dakota Wesleyan University. I am now working at the LGBT Resource Center as an intern and am truly enjoying my experience. I'm very excited to have chosen the LGBT RC because it's an area that I feel very welcome and comfortable. I hope to have an impact on the queer community as well as in myself.

This is a community space so confidentiality will be respected. Please e-mail fluidrainbow@gmail.com for more information.

Queer People Of Color 9th Annual Kiss-In

at the rainbow arch

We are excited to invite you to the 9th annual open house, a kiss-in and a queer display of public affection, a queer walk-in. We suggest showing all kinds of love - romantic, platonic or otherwise.

Dear friends, family, community--

You are cordially invited to the Queer lovefest that is QPOC's 9th Annual Kiss-In. Join us for rainbows, public displays of affection, pride, visibility and QPOC solidarity with various expressions of Love--romantic, platonic, and otherwise!

This is one of QPOC's traditional events and is meant to remind everyone around Valentine's Day that romance, love, and public displays of affection and intimacy aren't just for particular kinds of people and can not be encapsulated by only particular expressions and forms of "Love". Just like identities, "Love" can not be easily categorized into one expression. "Love..." is fluid and comes in all sorts of forms and flavors. Come pass out fliers, hold hands, kiss, hug, make out, or get wrapped in caution tape with someone you know, or someone you want to know better, and support QPOC and your friends, lovers, sisters, brothers, roommates, and comrades as we challenge the heteronormativity of this day, Queer up Library Walk with our beauty, and show our "love" in whatever that looks like for you!

You don't have to identify as queer, or of color, to participate in this event. We hope you will join us, be present, and support us in celebrating queer love! If you have any questions or would like more information, you may contact us at ucsdq poc@gmail.com

P.S. We recruit.

QuEST Career Panel & Networking Social

Martin Johnson House; T-29, 8840 Biological Grade, La Jolla
March 1 | 5:30 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

The Queer Engineers, Scientists, and Technical Professionals group seeks to support the careers of and create community among LGBTQ individuals in science, technology, engineering, mathematics, and medical fields. We've organized a career panel to discuss LGBT-related topics with representatives from various fields. Please come join us on March 1st, whether grad student, post-doc, staff, faculty, professional, or friend thereof.

The panel will be one hour from 6:30-7:30pm, with complementary appetizers and beer/wine served before and after. Come to SIO's beach house by La Jolla Shores and network with other LGBTQ professionals in the San Diego community. Allies of course are highly encouraged to attend. The event will be held in the same location as the last event (the T-29 beach house on top of a hill at SIO) and complementary wine/beer/hors d'oeuvres will be provided. For more information, visit the Facebook event page or our website. For additional info, please contact: info@sdquest.us

Blast from the Past:
LGBT Black History
Month Program

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Rainbow Newsletter, a memorable event from the past will be highlighted every week.

Ten years ago, on February 19th, the LGBT Resource Center sponsored a screening of the film "All God's Children" which addresses LGBT issues in the African American church community. There was a discussion held after the screening of this film.

"I speak out because I know our stories are tools of liberation."

Reproductive & Sexual Justice Healing Circle and Training

San Diego State University
February 24 | 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Interested in learning holistic, social justice approaches to sexual and reproductive well-being? Register for the reproductive and sexual justice healing circle and training at San Diego State University! Drawing from theories and practices developed by women of color and brown bois, this special one-day event will explore reproductive and sexual health issues, such as abortion, contraception, HIV/STDs and access to health care, within the context of other social justice issues, including economic justice, immigrant rights and LGBTQ rights. We will use holistic, co-counseling techniques (e.g. attentive listening, truthful storytelling, and respectful dialogue) to help build community and inspire activism. By the end, we hope that participants will use this knowledge within their own communities. Please visit www-rohan.sdsu.edu/~wsweb/ for more information.

Trans*Studies 2012 Conference

University of La Verne College of Law

Queer People of Color Conference 2012

Cal State Northridge

March 30 - April 1

Registration Deadline: March 1

The Queer People of Color Conference gives people the opportunity to understand the diversity of being a person of color within the queer community. It focuses on the issues of injustice and oppression faced by those within such communities, while simultaneously seeking methods of social reformation to alleviate such issues.

By illuminating these perspectives, through engaging workshops, discussion groups, caucuses and a captivating keynote speaker, QPOCC strives to fully expand your knowledge and empower the identities of queer people of color.

The theme for this year is Fourway: Intersection of Race, Gender, Class and Sex[uality]. Under this theme, we will raise awareness on issues such as, being a queer person of color, the rise of homelessness in the queer community, what is Trans, what is a women's world, and so forth.

We look forward to your participation with QPOCC and to challenging you to open your mind to the rediscovering the beauty that people of color bring to the queer community. So, take action and click to the Register Page now!

National Union of Jewish LGBTQ Conference

American University, Washington D.C.

February 17 - 19

Since 1997, Jewish LGBTQ college students have gathered together from across North America for an annual conference to engage in meaningful workshops, educational seminars, create a Shabbat environment and forge new friendships. NUIJS serves the needs of thousands for underrepresented college students across the country. We have taken the dramatic steps to go through an overhaul of our communication systems, rebuild our grassroots organizing and develop new key partnerships to ensure that we continue to provide for all of our constituents. As always, NUIJS remains committed to bringing together Jewish LGBTQ students once a year for our annual conference. We also welcome those students who do not identify as Jewish as well as those who identify as allies. For more information, please visit <http://www.nuijs.org>.

Nominations of LGBTQ Youth Activists Invited for Colin Higgins Youth Courage Awards

Nomination Deadline: February 29

A program of the Colin Higgins Foundation, the Colin Higgins Youth Courage Awards annually honor lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, two-spirit, queer, and questioning youth who have transformed their experiences with bigotry and discrimination into opportunities to inspire others by taking action, rallying support, building community, and working to change the systems and institutions that impact their lives.

Nominations should describe obstacles the nominee has faced due to their sexual orientation and/or gender identity, how the nominee has overcome these obstacles through community-level activism for LGBTQ rights, and how the award could transform the life of the nominee and help them achieve their dreams.

Three award winners will be selected to receive $10,000 each. Awardees also will receive an expense-paid trip to the 2013 National Gay and Lesbian Task Force Creating Change Conference. Please click here for more information.
