Gender Buffet

*Women's Center
Every Friday | 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.*

Gender Buffet is a weekly event held at the Women's Center every Friday from 12:00-1:30 P.M. This event is based on discussion, rather than presentation or lecture, around various topics within the framework of gender and social justice. Light snacks are provided as well.

This coming winter and spring quarter, Gender Buffet will begin to take place January 6, 2012 every Friday and we are open to suggestions of topics you would like to see.

If you are interested in being a facilitator/ co-facilitator feel free to contact Rosa at ragarcia@ucsd.edu. Rosa will be putting the schedule together for the upcoming quarter and would appreciate it if you could respond with any of your interests or suggestions for winter quarter by Thursday December 1st and suggestions for spring quarter before winter break. Your suggestions could be concise or elaborate. Thank you for your time and interest.

Western Regional Conference 2012: Save the Date

*University of the Pacific
February 24 - 26
Deadline for Early Bird Registration: December 16, 2011
Deadline for Late Registration: January 31, 2012*

Western Regional Conference 2012
Lead the movement,
Be the change

Over the summer, the University of California, Merced and the University of the Pacific joined forces to co-host the Western Regional Conference! The conference planning committee have lined up many outstanding speakers, programs and an amazing headline act for you to enjoy while you are with us.

LGBTQIA life has grown and enhanced over the last few decades and we are proud of our progress. While LGBTQIA leaders have come together for many years, our committee felt it was important to bring together students, faculty, staff, alumni and community members from the western United States. By coming together, we hope that you will have a chance to learn from each other, develop strong friendships and social networks, and learn how you can be an active leader within your community and institution. Please visit <http://www.comeoutwest.org> for more information.

Blast from the Past:
Queer(ing) Warhol:

Andy Warhol's (Self-) Portraits

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Rainbow Newsletter, a memorable event from the past will be highlighted every week.

Ten years ago, from November 10 to March 3, Queer(ing) Warhol presented some of the less well-known photographs of Andy Warhol, along with his self-portraits as a performance artist who consistently performed himself (for friends, for the camera, for the artworld) as "queer" - as being against the grain of both traditional conceptions of the artist and normative, heterosexual masculinity. The exhibition was on display at UCR/California Museum of Photography and was curated by Photography Fellow Robert A. Summers.

"I hear the word 'tolerance'--that some people are trying to teach people to be tolerant of gays. I'm not satisfied with that word. I am gay, and I am not seeking to be 'tolerated'. One tolerates a toothache, rush-hour traffic, an annoying neighbor with a

LGBTQIA Western Regionals Conference: UCSD Delegation Organizing Committee

LGBT Resource Center Conference Room
Mondays | 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Interested in planning for the 2012 LGBTQIA Western Regionals Conference? The Conference will take place in Winter Quarter February 24-26 at the University of Pacific, but we have already begun organizing for the UCSD Delegation. We are looking for more participants interested in organizing and coordinating the UCSD Delegation. We have our meetings on Mondays at the LGBT Resource Center in the Conference Room from 11am-12pm. We hope to see you there. Also, please email lgbtqia@gmail.com if you have any interest attending the Conference this year.

NOTE* The meeting is intended for those interested in planning for the Conference, rather than those hoping to attend.*

National Queer Asian Pacific Islander Alliance Conference: Call for Workshop Proposals

Crystal Gateway Marriott in Washington, D.C.
July 20 - 22, 2012
Deadline for Workshop Proposals: December 2

The National Queer Asian Pacific Islander Alliance (NQAPIA) is pleased to announce its Request for Proposals (RFP) for workshops and cultural activities for the NQAPIA 2012 Conference which will be held July 20-22, 2012 in Washington, DC, at Crystal Gateway Marriott. The theme for the 2012 conference is "Presence, Power, Progress."

The conference seeks to network, organize, agitate, educate, and build capacity of the nation's LGBTQ AAPI community, and are committed to principles of inclusion in every phase of conference planning, outreach, execution and evaluation. More info is available at <http://www.nqapia.org/>. Please e-mail nqapia@gmail.com by Friday, December 2, for more information regarding workshop proposals.

Voice & Action National Leadership Award for LGBT College Students

Extended Deadline: December 5

The Voice & Action National Leadership Award embodies our mission, values and vision for inclusion and recognition of young adult leaders in our broader LGBT and ally movement for social justice. In partnership with Ernst & Young & OUTmedia, the Voice and Action National Leadership Award is an honorary recognition highlighting the outstanding accomplishments of young adult leaders at colleges and universities across the United States. The award is the only honor of its kind, focused on the work of undergraduate college students who are creating positive change for LGBT and ally issues within their campus communities, local communities and region of the country. Research Study on UCSD Campus Climate

Interested in participating in a research study that examines undergraduate student beliefs and perceptions of the campus climate at UCSD? This research study is about how students from different racial/ethnic backgrounds as well as how females and males experience the UCSD campus climate. Findings in this study may be critical to uncovering best practices in California state universities and may also provide valuable lessons to other campuses on how to address issues of campus climate.

If you agree to participate in this survey, which will take less than 10 minutes to complete, then please refer to this link:
