LGBT RC Visitors This Week

Students: 365
Staff: 38
Faculty: 4
Alumni: 6
Guest: 7
Total: 420

During Week 3 of the winter quarter we will ask every visitor to the UC San Diego LGBT Resource Center to complete a census form. The goal is to collect information about who you are, why you visit the LGBT Resource Center, how we are doing and what we can meet your needs. And we will ask you to fill it out every time you visit during week 3 (Visit 3 times on Tuesday? Fill it out 3 times!) It is short, easy, anonymous and really will help the LGBT Resource Center in our strategic planning and assessment. If you have questions, contact Shaun Travers, stravers@ucsd.edu. Thanks!

INTRODUCING... Roshni Guha Thakurta

I am the 2011-2012 Web Design and Graphics Intern. I am responsible for updating the website, making flyers, and updating welcome board near the staircase. If you have any suggestions please feel free to voice them. As it is a new quarter I look forward to a fresh start meeting new people. Please don't feel shy approaching me.

Please join us in giving to the LGBT Resource Center

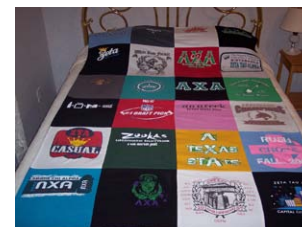

As we begin the new year, please make a resolution to give to the UC San Diego LGBT Resource Center. Your financial support helps us support our incredible interns, put on our community building events and extend our educational work. Giving is easy and fun, just click here!

http://lgbt.ucsd.edu/Support_the_UCSD_LGBT_RC.asp Thanks for your financial support!

Call for T-shirt Donations!

Hello everyone! I need your help! Do you have too many t-shirts packed away in drawers and left to hang in closets because it's too hard to part with all of those memories? Well, there's a solution!

As part of my Queer Student Action Project, I will be working to put together a social justice themed memory quilt consisting of t-shirts from the community, for the community. Please donate any t-shirts and contribute to the making of this memory quilt for the LGBT Resource Center. T-shirts can be dropped off any day and any time that the Resource Center is open, either at the front desk or in the box located near the front desk. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact me at byyan@ucsd.edu. Thank you!

Come OUT to the Game: UC San Diego vs. Cal State L.A. Men's Basketball

RIMAC Gym
February 3 | 7:30 p.m.

Blast from the Past: Cultural Unity Day of Awareness

Join the UC San Diego LGBT community as we come OUT to the game: UC San Diego vs Cal State L.A.'s Men's Basketball! UC San Diego Intercollegiate Athletics will be recognizing Shaun Travers, Director of UC San Diego's LGBT Resource Center, as the honorary coach for the game. Come out with all of your Triton LGBT pride and support the UC San Diego

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Rainbow Newsletter, a memorable event from the past will be highlighted every week.

Ten years ago, on January 17, the Cultural Unity Day of Awareness (CUDA) was held in the Price Center Plaza. This event was an opportunity to connect the network of entities who are currently working on cultural and sensitivity issues on the UCSD campus. This included uniting student organizations, campus departments, faculty members and active individuals to stand together in solidarity. The event featured an open mic session for representatives of the CUDA collective and a Community Drumming Circle.

"The less you think about your oppression, the more your tolerance for it grows. After a while, people just think oppression is a normal state of things. But to become free, you have to be acutely aware of being a slave."

LGBT Resource Center
Wednesdays | 12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Dr. Cat Thompson is the Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) liaison to the Campus Community Centers. She is housed at the Women's Center and spends five hours per week at each Community Center to facilitate seeing students and being in community. She will be at the Women's Center on Mondays from 10am to 1pm, the LGBT Resource Center on Wednesdays from 12pm to 5pm and the Cross-Cultural Center on Thursdays from 1pm to 6pm. Please speak to community center staff if you are interested in setting up an individual counseling appointment with her. Otherwise, feel free to stop by and say "hi" as she is here to be of service to our community and would love to connect with you. For more information about her training and areas of clinical interest, please see the staff section at <http://caps.ucsd.edu>.

UCSD LGBT Undergraduate Scholarships

Due March 16 | 4:00 p.m.

The LGBT Undergraduate Scholarship Program encourages gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender UCSD students to apply for the nine scholarships made possible by generous contributions from many people, including Chris Arrott, Michael Marx and Donald Marshall, Russ Ty, and from funds in memory of Tracee Parsons and Stephen P. L'Italien, Jr. The objective of the undergraduate scholarship program is to recognize and encourage academic excellence and to offer financial support to meritorious students. All 2012-2013 LGBT Scholarship applications will be submitted to the Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Resource Center (LGBTRC) and are due on March 16, 2012 at 4:00pm. For more information, please click here or email Vanidy at vbailey@ucsd.edu.

LGBT Study Abroad Information

The UCSD International Center is committed to assisting LGBTQ students with study abroad and international experiences. There are many programs available. A few ideas include the UCSD Global Seminar in Berlin, Germany; the Medical Spanish program in Costa Rica through AIFS; the Education Abroad programs in different countries, such as Sweden and the United Kingdom.

To begin your study abroad journey, attend a First Steps meeting at the UCSD International Center. You can sign up at the Programs Abroad

If you would like to submit an item to the newsletter, please send it by Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. to rainbow@ucsd.edu and type "For Newsletter" in the subject line. News items should be UCSD & LGBT focused.

Office web site at: <http://pao.ucsd.edu>. After exploring programs of interest to you, we invite you to make an appointment with a study abroad adviser to discuss your options.

Lastly, Rainbow SIG's Fall 2011 newsletter, "SIGnals", has been published and can be viewed at the following web site:

LTEA110C - Queer Chinese Cultures: A Survey of Fiction, Film, & Theory

Thurgood Marshall IO2-1

Tuesdays & Thursdays | 2:00 p.m. - 3:20 p.m.

It's not too late to sign up to take LTEA110C! This course offers a survey of materials on Chinese lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and gender-nonconforming literature, cinema, culture, and critical theory from contemporary China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and beyond. This is a discussion- and writing-oriented course in which we will explore a diverse sampling of materials related to Chinese queer cultures.

The Mixed Student Union

Conference Room, UCSD Women's Center

Tuesdays | 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Tues 5-6pm Women's Center

The Mixed Student Union will be meeting on Tuesday's from 5-6pm in the large conference room at the Women's Center. We're a group of students trying to create a space for the mixed, multicultural, multinational, multiethnic, multiracial and transracial adoptee community here at UCSD. We want to create a fun space for all of us to share our experiences and meet new people. All people of mixed heritage or not, anyone interested is welcome! For more information please email me, Jasmine Williams (Co-Chair of MSU) at: jsw001@ucsd.edu

Wellness Workshops for Graduate Students: Feeling Like a Fraud - Dealing with Imposter Syndrome

The Zone (located in Price Center)

January 18 | 12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

The Zone's Winter Quarter Wellness Workshop Series is a lunch-time series that provides information on campus resources that support the mental, physical, social, and financial aspects of the graduate & professional student experience.

This week's workshop series focuses on dealing with imposter syndrome. As a graduate student, have you ever had the secret sense that you are not as capable as others think you are? You are not alone--self-doubt can creep into anyone's life, especially when they've stepped into a new role (e.g., becoming parents, presidents, doctors, or graduate students!). This workshop is designed to help you navigate through these doubts, to be mindful of the limits of your current abilities, and to encourage you to find personal and professional growth opportunities.

Presented by Drs. Jess Chang & Monique Mendoza; Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

For information about upcoming workshops, please visit the following website:

LGBTQ Reducing Disparities Project: Provider Survey

This survey is part of a groundbreaking-community-based-research project to assess the inequalities and discrimination faced by LGBTQ communities, which can lead to negative mental health outcomes. The results of this survey will impact recommendations for improving mental wellness for LGBTQ individuals. These recommendations will be included in a major report to the California Department of Mental Health and disseminated to LGBTQ communities and health and human service providers throughout the state.
