Blast from the Past: The T Party

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Rainbow Newsletter, a memorable event from the past will be highlighted every week.

Ten years ago, there was an event called the T Party, which was a training on trans issues. There was also Early Grey, Darjeeling, and Herbal teas for your sipping pleasure, crumpets, scones, and a silver tea service.

"You are not always aware of how you can be dangerous to me and this makes me dangerous to you."

On Wednesday, April 4, 2012, 5pm-6:30pm at the LGBT Resource Center, we will have our first spring quarter event: Spring Q Camp. Week 1 is Graduate Student Appreciation Week and we want to honor our graduate students! So, come out for the celebration! Spring Q Camp is also an informal gathering and a way to re-connect with community members and with the LGBT Resource Center. We do hope you allow us to welcome in the new quarter with you!

Transgender Legacy Project

*LGBT Resource Center Conference Room
April 4 | 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.*

The Transgender Legacy Project aims to promote visibility and awareness of identities under the trans umbrella. It will be a visual art piece that, upon completion, will be displayed at the UCSD LGBT Resource Center for years to come. It will be a welcoming reminder to those identities under the trans umbrella who enter the space that their identity is visible, acknowledged and welcomed in the space. Please let your friends/trans identities know, to generate interest. People do not have to be UCSD affiliated.

The project will be a photo, or a series of photos, in which you express your gender identity in the way that feels comfortable and authentic to you. Picture location, and details of how confidential you want your contribution to the project to be, are encouraged and negotiable. You can provide a biography/captions for your photo(s) as well.

A $20 fee will be collected, in person, upon your confirmation of interest. These funds will be used to both cover the actual photo process (you will be able to indicate whether or not you want to keep photos), as well as a dinner for the photographer at
