The "I" Exists:

*Promoting Intersex Politics/Awareness in the LGBT Community
October 29 | 6:00 p.m.
LGBT Resource Center*

This program is a space to talk about intersex issues that are otherwise not really talked about in our communities. As an intersex awareness program we will come together to talk about intersex issues and politics in the LGBT community. The "I" exist will be composed of the film, "Intersexion" and followed by a discussion.

Bayard Rustin Intern for Activism & Education

Hey Everyone! My name is Sofia Beltran and I'm the new Bayard Rustin Intern for Activism and Education. I love freestyling, poetry, rugby, most other sports, and spontaneous activities with friends. I'm really excited about speaking about topics that strongly affect not only me, but also the whole community. I also can't wait to do some fun activities that will release some stress throughout the quarter! See y'all around!

folks' personal belongings and items from student organizations. Please stop by the RC before November 1, 2013 and pick up your things before they're donated or put into storage. For more information please contact Chris Datiles at cdatiles@ucsd.edu.

Queer Grad Coffee Hour

*November 5 | 2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
LGBT Resource Center Conference Room*

Are you a Queer Graduate Student? Want to meet other Queer Grad Students and build community? Stop by the LGBT Resource Center to chat and sip coffee. For more information, please contact Maribel Gomez at mpgomez@ucsd.edu.

Speaker's Bureau Facilitator Training

*November 13 | 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
LGBT Resource Center, Conference Room*

Are you currently a trained Speaker's Bureau panelist looking forward to taking your involvement in this program to the next level? Come be facilitator trained! Without these folks, Speakers Bureau can't function. As long as you have done one panel, you are eligible to be trained.

Already trained? Come on back and get a refresher course. Want more practice being on a panel? Come to the last hour of training when we will be doing mock panels. If you have any questions, contact Robyn Grand at lgbtSpeakers@ucsd.edu.

Honor & Respect: QTPOC art gallery

*Reception: October 30 | 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Exhibition: October 28 - November 7
Cross-Cultural Center*

This art gallery will combine Day of the Dead and Transgender Day of Remembrance. This is one way to honor Queer and Trans* People of Color lives and connect the spirit of the living to those of the dead. This is to give name to radical QTPOC lives, whose suicides, murders, and poetry continue to haunt the living. This haunting doesn't have to be only deathly or foreboding. It can also give light and ánimo to those who are living and working to make this world more live-able. For more information, connect with Eliseo @ el.jrivas@gmail.com.

T*Camp

Register Deadline November 1st

T*Camp is an intercampus retreat to explore gender identity and expression and to engage in dialogue with our peers. Camp brings together trans and gender questioning students for an intercampus retreat January 3-5, 2014. Both undergraduates and graduates who are currently enrolled are welcome to apply. This event is specifically for students who are transgender, genderqueer, or gender questioning (TGQQ).

Online Applications are due November 1st, 2013. To register click here.

For questions about T*Camp contact the UCSD campus representative, Maribel Gomez mpgomez@ucsd.edu, (858) 822-3493.

Tabla Conference

January 18

University of California, Riverside

The purpose of this conference is to build coalitions between Queer and Trans* students and allies with ties to South Asia, the Middle East, North Africa and neighboring countries.

At the conference, we intend to *assemble more collaboration with youth and youth organizers, *elevate knowledge about our homelands and respond to U.S. foreign policies in those regions, *unpack queerness, trans identity, and homosexuality in the family, *redefine national identity, gender expressions, masculinity and femininity, *deepen and recognize the complexities within these women's, men's, transgender spaces, and queer spaces, *heal oppression through artistic expression, and provide education and knowledge through film screenings, lectures, and workshops.

Click here to register by December 6, 2013 and if you have any further questions email namesandneighbors@gmail.com or contact NAMES & Neighbors advisor and center director Nancy Jean Tubbs at (951)827-2267.
