Rainbow Graduation

Great Hall, Eleanor Roosevelt College
June 9 | 4:00 p.m.

Make your plans now to attend UC San Diego's Rainbow Graduation. Saturday, June 9th, 2012, 4pm at the Great Hall at Eleanor Roosevelt College.

Please join the UC San Diego LGBT community as we come together to honor the students who are graduating, our volunteers, our scholarship recipients and all who have impacted our community over the last year. The event serves as the formal induction of the graduates into the family of the UC San Diego LGBT Alumni. Although many people do get dressed up for the event, it tends to be a queer little get together, with all the trappings of our community, so be yourself. We conclude our ceremony with a scrumptious spread of good food.

If you are graduating, sign up today! If you would like to volunteer, contact Jonathan at lgbrcvolunteers@gmail.com. We hope to see everyone there!

June 9 | 4:00 p.m.*

Welcome graduate students to the UC San Diego LGBT Resource Center. Our Center serves all constituents of the UC San Diego community, including and especially our graduate students. Our space is open to all constituents, although we know from our statistics that the majority of the folks who use our space on a daily basis are undergraduate students. However, our second largest category is graduate students, so we encourage you to make the Resource Center your own.

It's not just for undergrads... It's for YOU! Let's celebrate

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Rainbow Newsletter, a memorable event from the past will be highlighted every week.

Ten years ago, on June 1st, the LGBTA had their last dance of the year after the Rainbow Graduation ceremony. The semi-formal "Homocoming" was a great way to send off all the graduates that were just recognized.

"We have to consciously study how to be tender with each other until it becomes a habit."

-- Audre Lorde

The Transgender Intersex Alliance's (TIA) Visible Bodies photo project has the primary focus of promoting visibility of the transgender community, in its diversity, via the medium of a photographic art piece. Participants are those that identify as part of the transgender community, and have over the course of the quarter had photos taken which, to them, best represent their lived-experience with gender. The project aims to provide insight into where they are, where they've been, and where they might be going with their gender expression and identity. Anybody is welcome to join us in the open portion of our meeting. Light refreshments will be served.

Tiger Mom, Stay Out of My Life!

UCSD Women's Center Conference Room
May 29 | 5:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

Join me for my Gender Action Project as we explore how parenting affects self-perception and identity. Using "Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother," a memoir by Yale professor Amy Chua on her "Chinese" parenting style, as a launching point, this facilitated dialogue will explore different parenting styles, and how they affect our identity, self-perception, and individual values. We will examine different levels of parental involvement in children's lives, and how they shape our identity. Our parents' expectations for our behavior, self-presentation, and our future shapes how we view ourselves, others, how others perceive us, our sense of agency, and the role that we play in greater society. Come, meet some new people, have some great food, and even better dialogue!

NOTE: A knowledge or familiarity with the book is NOT required! We will discuss the ideas in the book during the event itself.

For more information on Amy Chua or "Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother," please refer to her website: <http://amychua.com/>.

Important Note: Food and drinks will be provided! :)

BDSM 101: Breaking Down Sexual Misconceptions

This program aims to challenge the many fears, misconceptions and stereotypes surrounding BDSM and kink. Come to learn and hear panelists share their own experiences within this vibrant and diverse community. All open minded individuals are welcome and food will be provided.

Now looking for panelists! Panelists will answer audience questions about their experiences with BDSM. Your privacy will be taken very seriously and you do not have to use your real name.
